Introducing 423 Vanderbilt, a rare opportunity deep in Biltmore Forest. This vast ranch is situated on 2.41 private acres with mature landscaping that features perennial gardens, azaleas & rhododendron that have color spring, summer and fall. This meticulously maintained home showcases craftsmanship that can only be attained in a 20th century home. The open kitchen, large living spaces, and a beautiful brick patio off the kitchen are an entertainer's dream. The north wing of the house provides the primary suite & 3 bedrooms while the south wing yields an additional bedroom for a guest room or secluded home office. The lower level adds potential for passive income or additional living spaces. With exterior access and a full kitchen the space is perfect for multigenerational living, a long-term rental unit, or your dream wine-cellar/media room. With two wood-burning fireplaces, foliage at every corner, & peaceful privacy this home is just waiting to be your cherished and cozy home.
